Subject: Soviet Airfields in Poland

Information Date: Evaluation: References:

Przemys - Sierahow

There is a Soviet airfield in the meadows of the Sierahow estate about 3 km southwest of Przemys. More than forty Soviet twin-engine aircraft were observed.

Przemys - Karmen

Soviet airfield, formerly a German airfield.

Ciechanow

3 km toward Karmen near the railroad line there is a Soviet airfield where approximately 100 twin-engine aircraft were observed.

Comments: a. As of May 1946 only a landing ground at Karmen (about 5 km east of Przemys) had been identified in the Przemys area. As Sierahow is about 3 km southwest of Karmen, Sierahow and Karmen may be the same airfield. b. This is the first identification of the Ciechanow Airfield.)

Pruchniowice about 4 km northwest of Wrzawy)

A large number (about 200) Soviet aircraft (mostly bombers) were observed on the field.

Lysenice near Torun

Numerous fighter planes
